Order of Worship

Maundy Thursday/Holy Communion

PREPARATION

Please silence your phone and other digital devices

Prelude Personal Meditation and Prayer

PRAISE

Choral Introit Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Call to Worship [PLEASE STAND]

Leader As we are called into worship today, it is sobering to remember that when God appeared on earth in the person of Jesus, most of the world did not recognise him
and therefore did not worship him.
Today we ask for the faith that will open our eyes to see Jesus for who he is,
that we might worship him in truth.

People We open our eyes to see his glory.
We open our ears to hear his wisdom.
We open our hands to offer him gifts.
We open our mouths to sing his praise.
We open our hearts to offer him our love.

ALL Taste and see the goodness of the Lord;
Christ has prepared a feast of love.

TENEBRAE (refer to the last page for a short explanation)

Responsive Meditation [PLEASE STAND]

Leader God is light, in whom there is no darkness at all.

People Jesus Christ is the light of the world.

Leader And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world,

ALL and we loved darkness rather than light

Tenebrae, meaning "Shadow" or "Darkness," is based on a twelfth-century late night/early morning service and is an extended meditation on the passion of Christ. It is meant to recreate the emotional aspects of the passion story. The meditation is a series of passages drawn from John 18:1–19:42, it starts with lit candles that are successively snuffed out after each passage is read. The service then ends in silence, and congregants either leave silently, or stay in prayerful silence.

The Passion of Jesus Christ

*As we meditate on the Passion of Jesus, please respond collectively by speaking the words in Bold

1

Leader Jesus went forth with his disciples across the Kidron valley, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.
Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place;
for Jesus often met there with his disciples.
So Judas, procuring a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons.
Then Jesus, knowing all that was to befall him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?"

People They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Leader Jesus said to them, "I am he."
Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.
When he said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.
Again he asked them, "Whom do you seek?"

People And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Leader Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he;
so, if you seek me, let these men go."
This was to fulfill the word which he had spoken,
"I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me."
Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's slave and cut off his right ear.
The slave's name was Malchus.
Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath;
shall I not drink the cup which the Father has given me?"

2

Leader So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Judean authorities seized Jesus and bound him.
First they led him to Annas;
for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.
It was Caiaphas who had given counsel to the religious authorities that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Leader Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple.
As this disciple was known to the high priest,
he entered the court of the high priest along with Jesus, while Peter stood outside at the door.
So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in.
The woman who guarded the gate said to Peter,
"Are not you also one of this man's disciples?"

People He said, "I am not."

Leader Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold,
and they were standing and warming themselves;
Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

Leader The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.
Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world;
I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple,
where all Jewish people come together;
I have said nothing secretly. Why do you ask me?
Ask those who have heard me, what I said to them; they know what I said."

People When he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying,
"Is that how you answer the high priest?"

Leader Jesus answered him,
"If I have spoken wrongly, bear witness to the wrong;
but if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"
Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Leader Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself.
They said to him, "Are not you also one of his disciples?"

People He denied it and said, "I am not."

Leader One of the servants of the high priest, a kinsman of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,
"Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

People Peter again denied it; and at once the cock crowed.

Leader Then they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters.
It was early.

They themselves did not enter the headquarters,
so that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

So Pilate went out to them and said,

"What accusation do you bring against this man?"

People They answered him,
"If this man were not an evildoer,
we would not have handed him over."

Leader Pilate said to them,

"Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

People The religious authorities said to him,
"It is not lawful for us to put any man to death."

Leader This was to fulfill the word which Jesus had spoken to show by what death he was to die.

Leader Pilate entered the headquarters again and called Jesus, and said to him,
"Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered, "Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?"

Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew?"

Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me;
what have you done?"

Jesus answered, "My kingship is not of this world;
if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the religious authorities;
but my kingship is not from the world."

Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king.

For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth.

Every one who is of the truth hears my voice."

Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

8

Leader After Pilate had said this,
he went to the religious authorities again, and told them,
"I find no crime in him.
But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover;
will you have me release for you the King of the Jews?"

People They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barabbas!"
Now Barabbas was a robber.

Leader Then Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.

People And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple robe;
they came up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
and struck him with their hands.

Leader Pilate went out again, and said to them,
"See, I am bringing him out to you, that you may know that I find no crime in him."
So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe.
Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!"

People When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!"

Leader Pilate said to them,
"Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no crime in him."

People The religious authorities answered him,
"We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he has made himself the Son of God."

Leader When Pilate heard these words, he was the more afraid;
he entered the headquarters again and said to Jesus,
"Where are you from?"
But Jesus gave no answer.
Pilate therefore said to him, "You will not speak to me?
Do you not know that I have power to release you,
and power to crucify you?"
Jesus answered him,
"You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above;
therefore he who delivered me to you has the greater sin."

10

Leader Upon this Pilate sought to release him, but the religious authorities cried out,

People* "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend;
every one who makes himself a king sets himself against Caesar."

Leader When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gab' · ba· tha .
Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover;
it was about the sixth hour.

He said to the religious authorities, "Behold your King!"

People* They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!"

Leader Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

People* The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

Leader They handed him over to them to be crucified.

11

Leader So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull,
which is called in Hebrew, Gol' · go·tha .
There they crucified him,
and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them.
Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross;
it read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews."
Many of the Judeans read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city;
and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

People* The Jewish chief priests then said to Pilate,
"Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'"

Leader Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

12

Leader When the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took his garments and made four parts, one for each soldier;
also his tunic.

But the tunic was without seam, woven from top to bottom;

People* so they said to one another,
"Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be."

Leader This was to fulfill the scripture,
"They parted my garments among them,
and for my clothing they cast lots."

13

Leader So the soldiers did this.
But standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near,
he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!"
Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!"
And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

Leader After this Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the scripture), "I thirst."
A bowl full of vinegar stood there;
so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop and held it to his mouth.
When Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished";
and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Leader Since it was the day of Preparation, in order to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a high day), the religious authorities asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first,
and of the other who had been crucified with him;
but when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead,
they did not break his legs.
But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear,
and at once there came out blood and water.
He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth—that you also may believe.
For these things took place that the scripture might be fulfilled,
"Not a bone of him shall be broken."
And again another scripture says,
"They shall look on him whom they have pierced."

16

Leader After this Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the religious authorities, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus,
and Pilate gave him leave.
So he came and took away his body.
Nicodemus also, who had at first come to him by night,
came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes,
about a hundred pounds' weight.
They took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.
Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden,
and in the garden a new tomb where no one had ever been laid.
So because of the Jewish day of Preparation,
as the tomb was close at hand,
they laid Jesus there.
